Metro Government of Nashville and Davidson County Selects ASC for Injury-On-Duty Management Services

Nashville, Tennessee (October 23, 2008) – Alternative Service Concepts (ASC), a full-service, workers' compensation and property & casualty third party claims administrator, today announced that The Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County has awarded all Injury-On-Duty (IOD) claims management services to ASC.

With this service, Metro Government will renew a relationship that offers significant reductions in the cost of risk through an experienced and comprehensive IOD claims administration program. This includes aggressive cost containment strategies, a thorough return-to-work program, and a reporting dashboard that tracks performance of all vendors. ASC's service accommodates the needs of multiple employee groups under Metro Government. It also meets Metro's requirements for a comprehensive network of medical providers and bill review for its more than 12,000 employees in Middle Tennessee.

"ASC has exceeded our needs as a committed third-party claims resource with a knowledgeable and attentive customer service solution," said Robin Brown, Assistant Director of Workforce Development for Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County. "With IOD services from ASC, we provide our injured employees with a most efficient return-to-work program while at the same time significantly reducing costs through our renewed partnership."

"We are pleased to continue to support Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County," said Robert Bennett, CEO of ASC. "Metro's selection of ASC validates our industry-transforming strategy to focus our efforts on rehabilitating the employee while aggressively controlling costs through vendor integration, dedicated resources and a comprehensive reporting package that tracks results. ASC will continue to lead the industry towards a feasible IOD solution that works, for the employer and employee."
